Here Andrew has challenged John Gillis. As part of the challenge you can send a message – such as days that suit you to play or your mobile number. Please also text the person that you are challenging. Communication is important to make this work

If someone is already in a challenge you cannot challenge them until their existing challenge is complete. Once a challenge is made you have 1 week to play and post the results otherwise there will be an automatic forfeit.

Once a challenge is complete either party can input the results, and the system will automatically move participants up or down the ladder depending on results.

Remember the Rules – You must play a minimum of 2 matches per month.

ENJOY!!!!!!!!!!

- ### The Rules of The ladder
